

HOLLISTER POLICE DEPARTMENT

Hollister Police Department Basic Animal Emergency Services Training Program October 22-23, 2010

The Hollister Police Department will be hosting a two-day Basic Animal Emergency Services Training.

Disasters of any type can occur at anytime or place. American Humane Red Star Animal Emergency Services helps communities prepare for disasters before they strike. Animal Emergency Services will be on scene when disasters occur. You can be one of the trained volunteers who respond to the call for help.

The two-day event will cover the following topics:

- Perspective on national disaster response and relief
- Animal first aid in a disaster
- Incident Command System
- Temporary & co-location sheltering
- Structure of response team
- Reporting Roles
- Large animal behavior
- Incident specific response and interagency cooperation
- Mock shelter set up & response
- Disaster public relations 101
- Small animal behavior

The training will be held at the Hollister Police Department on Friday October 22, 2010 and Saturday October 23, 2010, from 8:30 am until 5:00 pm. Lunch will be provided.

A Grant from the San Benito County Community Foundation is subsidizing the event. To assist in the costs, a donation of $35.00 per person is requested.

Please confirm your attendance by filling out the attached reservation form. Return the completed form along with your payment on or before Monday October 4, 2010.

If you have any questions about the training, please call Animal Control Supervisor Julie Carriero at 636-4320. You may also email Julie at shelter@hollister.ca.gov

Thank you for taking the time to be involved and become prepared to help your community in the event of a disaster.
